Baseline Surface Radiation Network

The World Radiation Monitoring Center (WRMC) is the central archive of the Baseline Surface Radiation Network (BSRN). Being founded in 1992, the BSRN serves high quality solar radiation data for 25 years now. In 2017 PANGAEA Curator Amelie Driemel took over the responsibilities from Gert König-Langlo as new director of the WRMC.

WEB
After more than 20 years of operation PANGAEA has renewed its face. Although many users were in favour of the minimalistic Google like interface we decided it was time to move to more sophisticated techniques to interact with our users. The new website offers new functionalities such as faceted searches, mobile browser support, and linking your data submissions with your ORCID ID. Try it out!
